

1991

Bowdoin Class News & Photos

Class Volunteers

Chris Cheney
Lance Conrad
E.J. Coveney
Angela Crangle
John Dougherty
Amy Wakeman Fields
Matt Fortuin
Cathy Supper Fortuin
Laura Foulke
Nancy Eckel Foushee
Adam Gibbons
Lori Knowlton
Rich Lassen
Judy Snow May
Lisa Carter Moerner
Linda Pardus-Goodman
Julie Asselta Savage
Dana Stanley
Kathryn Loeb Stauss
Lynn Warner Unipan
Mitch Zuklie

Class of 2021

Of 501 entering first-years:

49% men
51% women
62% outside of NE
34% students of color
10% outside of US
9% Maine residents
More than 16% first generation to attend college
13 US states with ten or more students (CA, CT, FL, IL, MA, MD, ME, NH, NJ, NY, OH, PA, VA, WA)

Get Involved!

If you have any interest in getting involved with the College, please contact Jane Camp at jcamp@bowdoin.edu or 207-798-7184

Bowdoin

Lance Conrad

Completed my Ed.D. at PennGSE not too long ago. I'm in my ninth year as Head of School at Chapel Hill-Chauncy Hall (Waltham, MA). Great company with fellow independent school heads and '91 Polar Bears, Chris Cheney (Kents Hill School, ME) and Marshall Carter (Atrium School, MA).

Photo: Opening a renovated dormitory at CH-CH last fall.

Chris Cheney

Our family has moved back to Maine after three years in South Africa and two in Slovakia. I am the Head of School at Kents Hill School in Readfield, ME.

Jeff Wood

I got married in November 2017

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: With his presence, the ubiquitous Scott Stephens kept his 26 year consecutive attendance record streak alive by attending each and every single class of '91 event since graduation

Photo: Wedding nuptials. That's a handsome young man in his fitted suit... my son looks pretty smart as well.

Matthew Rogers

Matt and Stacey remain happily busy with their kids (Nate, 16 and Liza, 14) who both play 3 sports and are active in volunteer work (see photo). Matt is still a financial planner & portfolio manager, and was once again named to the Presidents Club for 2017 with Raymond James Financial. The family was also happy for Josh Reddick and the Houston Astros for winning the World Series! Josh lived with the family for 2 years and has remained a close friend.

Photo: The family just completed their second mission trip.

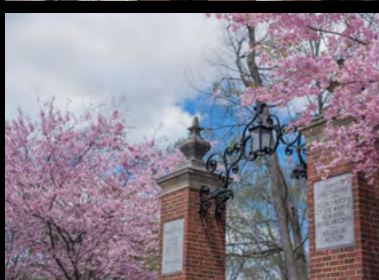

Mark your calendar!

BOWDOIN ONE DAY

Wednesday, April 25, 2018

1991

Scenes from Campus

Roseann Thomas Marlett

I'm starting my third year as the Curriculum Library Coordinator at the College of St. Rose in Albany, NY. Educating future classroom teachers, speech therapists and counselors is very rewarding. My own kids are all in high school, so there is never a dull moment! Our oldest will graduate in June.

Photo: Family Christmas: Lydia, Jeff (Wabash '91), Roseann '91, Misha & Julia

Bart Acocella

I married Maura Dougherty (Catholic University '94) on November 10 of last year. Delighted that Jeff Harrington '91, Laurie Harrington '91, John Unipan '89 and Lynn Unipan '91 could be there to celebrate with us. I continue to work in progressive politics in Washington, now as speechwriter and Executive Communications Strategist for one of the nation's largest labor unions: the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME). The kids are practically all grown (Caroline, 17, and James, 14). Caroline's off to college in the fall but couldn't be sold on Maine.

Jessica Storey Dils

Blair '90 and I continue to make our home in Williamstown, MA--fully engaged in teaching, coaching, writing, and working with Williams College students and our local high school students. Sam (18) will head to Hamilton in the fall to study and play soccer; Miranda (21) is a junior at Bowdoin and is studying abroad in New Delhi this spring; Tom, Middlebury Class of '17, lives and works as an analyst in NYC and still connects with his Midd. soccer teammates regularly. My writing is focused on fiction for children and young adults with an MFA from Vermont College in Fine Arts.

Photo: Dils Family, May 2017: Sam, Miranda, Tom, Jessica '91 and Blair '90.

2017 has put me in the grassroots activist camp, leading team "Greylock Together," a 600+ member Indivisible organization fighting for progressive policies here in the Northern Berkshires, in solidarity with the wave of activists nationwide who wake up daily to resist #45. Exhausting but well worth the fight. Don't forget to VOTE in the midterm elections! Cheers to all...

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: Anissa Sanborn Malague '91 and Marty Malague '90.

Craig Niemann '91 and Jenny Crawford Niemann '90

We moved to a new house on the north shore of Chicago and love being on Lake Michigan. Our oldest, Sarah, is a senior looking at colleges but alas, not Bowdoin. Wants a larger school.

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: Ryan Stafford '89, Nils Larson '92, Amy Bluhm '89

Keep up with what's new at Bowdoin

Bowdoin Social

Bowdoin News

Bowdoin Orient

Jennifer Weinstein

I finally have news! Jen Weinstein '91 married Mark Donegan in Lincolnshire, IL on January 5, 2018. Sorry I missed the last reunion! I'm the legal guardian of a 13-year old boy named Joey and he had a baseball tournament that weekend! He was the best man in the wedding and his uncle is my new husband!

Photo: Jen Weinstein '91 & Mark Donegan Tie the Knot!

Andrew Appel

I am still in Kansas City and have two kids in high school.

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: David Moore '91, Al Mauro '89

Brian Goldberg

Julie, my wife of over three years, Spencer and I recently moved to the St. Louis area! We are now in Kirkwood, closer to the city of STL itself, in a home that was built in 1938. She fell in love with it, and I have as well. Spencer is a senior in high school, and will soon decide to attend either Missouri or Alabama. He plans to study Broadcast Journalism, and hopefully the world will see or hear him over the airwaves in the future. His love of all things sports continues to thrive.

Most of my friends know that Spencer and I lost Becky, his Mom and my wife of over 18 years, just over five years ago in 2012. She had a heart attack at age 43, and needless to say, we were devastated. Shortly after that, I got back in touch with Julie Dyas, who was a friend of mine in high school in Alabama, and we fell in love and were married in 2014. She is an attorney with a law firm which specializes in corporate bankruptcy, restructuring, mergers & acquisitions. She gets to practice from her office on the other side of our house, so that's a great thing! She also has a Ph.D in Linguistics, and was a Romance Languages Major as an undergrad, just like me!

I am in my 15th year with GP Sandy (an Automotive Training company) as a Trainer for Cadillac. Yes, I get to drive around and talk about cars for a living, which should be a complete shocker to absolutely no one who has ever known me. I also am still the loudest fan at Spencer's basketball games (like I was back in the day at Dayton Arena). I became a Motorcyclist again after about 19 years of dormancy, and Julie and I share five motorcycles and scooters. It is my passion and I hope to be able to ride and repair them even more in the future, if I ever get to retire!

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: I rarely see any Polar Bears in the Midwest, but I stay in touch with Mimi LaPointe '91, and I am pretty active on Facebook with many Polar Bears from my class and others.

Photo: Just me at Indian Springs School for my 30th Class Reunion, near Birmingham, Alabama. ISS and Bowdoin together! Not my car!

Michelle Melendez Rasich

The Bowdoin presence is strong at Rowland Hall, an Independent day school in Salt Lake City, Utah. Including Ben Smith '93, Faculty, Computer Science; Michelle Melendez Rasich '91, Director of College Counseling; Ingrid Gustavson '92, Upper School Principal

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: Michelle and her family rang in the new year with classmate Kim Heald Krawshuk '91 and her family. Wishing all Polar Bears the best for 2018!

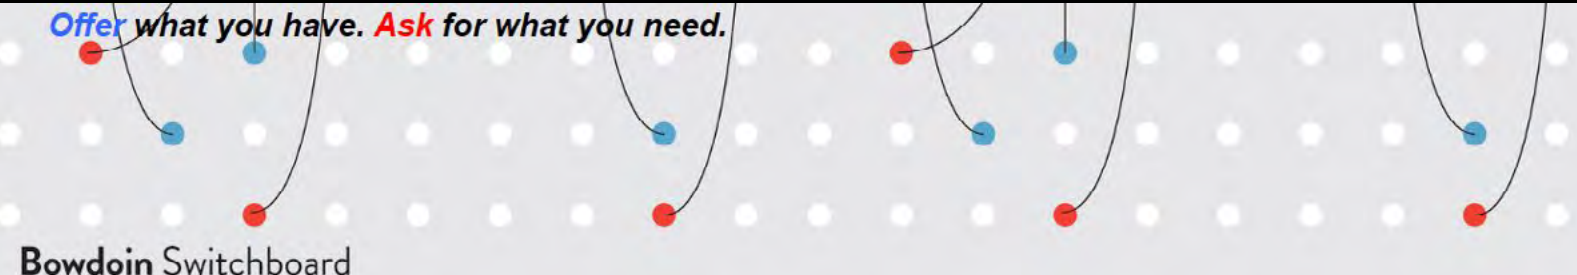

Photo: Polar Bears at Rowland Hall: Ben Smith '93, Michelle Melendez Rasich '91, Ingrid Gustavson '92

Connect with fellow Polar Bears through Switchboard

Offer what you have. Ask for what you need.

Bowdoin Switchboard

1991

Bowdoin Class News & Photos

Hannah Rahill

With family in tow, last summer I married a lovely Dutchman named Robbert DeVries.

Photo: The Rahill-DeVries wedding in Girona, with Hannah Rahill '91 and my adored stepfather, Bill Christmas '61 (back row, far right)

Ivana L. Djordjevic

Have been dancing Flamenco at the El Olor Del Alma Flamenco Center in Belgrade, Serbia and walking dogs for a living.

Other Polar Bears you've connected with recently: Curtis Maxwell Perrin '92, Gwen Thompson '92, Thomas Spande '93

Photo: August 2017, at a coffee bar in Belgrade, Serbia

